

Call to Action from APhA: Pharmacists Needed as COVID-19 Training Evaluators

APhA needs qualified volunteers to conduct evaluations of learners who will be trained to test for COVID-19 using brief online educational programs. Pharmacy practice organizations and public health departments are working hard to expand screenings, so there is high demand for qualified trainers to conduct these evaluations. If you are interested, please complete this survey.

More resources can be found at APhA Pharmacists' Guide to Coronavirus.