

The Transition

Fourth-Year Pharmacy Students Entering the Real World of Pharmacy

Volume VI, Issue III

May 2020

Inside this issue:

Where will your favorite Pharm Dawgs be?

1-2

This issue of The Transition looks a little different and is a bit more brief than initially planned, but, as with every aspect of our lives right now, we are pushing forward and doing the best we can! Covid-19 has brought about so many unexpected changes so quickly in our lives, but not even a global pandemic could stop the Class of 2020 PharmDawgs. Now that we have officially (virtually) graduated, we really are ready to “enter the real world of pharmacy.” From the bottom of our hearts, thank you to the entire UGA College of Pharmacy for pouring all of your knowledge, wisdom, guidance, and love into us for the past four years. We are now well-rounded, ready-to-take-on-anything pharmacists because of you. Thank you for an unforgettable four years.

Maggie Segovia, Chief Editor
